Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What do I do to become a member?

Please contact us by email: info@harpersfood.co.uk or via our website and we will send you all the information you need to join Harpers Fine Food & Wine Society. Or, if you prefer to, visit our Food Hall (open 7 days a week), talk to our staff and collect a form.

Q. Is there a joining fee, annual fee or any administration charges?

No, there are no hidden charges.

Q. I would love to shop regularly with you, but have difficulty in getting to you!

We do home deliveries. Orders can be placed via email or telephone.

Q. How do I know how much money is in my account?

Regular statements are sent to you showing ALL transactions. In addition, our shop staff can always tell you your balance, or you may phone or email us.

Q. How can you afford to give away benefits?

By not spending on advertising, we are able to give back in benefits to our committed customers.

Join now and start enjoying the benefits.
